Due to our wonderful Scholastic Book Club Co-Ordinator leaving the school at the end of the year we are looking for some volunteers to help with sorting of the books when they arrive. With a couple of people, it only takes about an hour twice a term , usually straight after the morning bell rings (but it doesn't have to be ).

We are flexible with days (and young children ) so if you are interested send me an email with your details – name , phone number and days available and I will contact you and discuss what is involved.

Thank you
